Technology safety training for SADFV practitioners, by practitioners using a domestic and family violence lens.

WESNET The Women's Services Network

● Tech Safety Training Dates

Children, Young People & Tech Abuse*

This training goes beyond the basics and explores the ways in which abusers use young people's technology as a part of domestic and family violence and practical ways frontline workers and advocates can support their clients to respond to this risk. Particular attention will be given to court-ordered contact, tech gifts, and social media.

Date: Wednesday 24 July 2024
Time: 12:30 pm AEST (10:30 am WA)
Duration: One hour
Format: Online
Cost for members: $76 per person, inc GST
Cost for non-members: $95 per person, inc GST

Location, Location, Location

This webinar covers the ways in which victim-survivors may be located, monitored, and surveilled through technology by abusers. Attendees will learn how this type of abuse can occur, the most commonly and complex tactics used by abusers, how to identify the technology being used, where to look for evidence, what to do about it, and how to protect against the likelihood of it occurring.

Date: Thursday 29 August 2024
Time: 12:30 pm AEST (10:30 am WA)
Duration: One hour
Format: Online
Cost for members: $76 per person, inc GST
Cost for non-members: $95 per person, inc GST

Social Media and Survivors*

This webinar covers the most common social media platforms used by Australians. We will discuss how DFV perpetrators commonly misuse social media and what can be done to support victim-survivors. We'll also look at the data these platforms collect, store and share, and cover how victim-survivors can maximise the built-in privacy and security settings, use the abuse-reporting features and potentially document abuse.

Date: Tuesday 22 October 2024
Time: 12:30 pm AEST (10:30 am WA)
Duration: One hour
Format: Online
Cost for members: $76 per person, inc GST
Cost for non-members: $95 per person, inc GST

Understanding Stalkerware*

This 90-minute webinar provides frontline SADFV workers with an overview of stalkerware and how it is currently deployed in DFV on both computers and mobile devices. Participants will learn how to potentially distinguish whether stalkerware or other forms of technology are being used and some practical steps and advice in relation to assisting victim-survivors with risk and safety planning around stalkerware, and much more.

Date: Thursday 14 November 2024
Time: 12:30 pm AEST (10:30 am WA)
Duration: 90 minutes
Format: Online
Cost for members: $112 per person, inc GST
Cost for non-members: $140 per person, inc GST

Dating App Safety

This webinar explores some of the more common abuse scenarios that occur within the online dating world including online harassment and misogyny, image – based abuse, romance scams and stalking. The webinar will cover some 'do's' and 'don'ts' of online dating and go through the privacy and security features that are available on most of the major dating apps. We will also cover the options that are available to someone if they experience some form of abuse.

Date: by expression of interest
Duration: One hour
Format: Online
Cost for members: $76 per person, inc GST
Cost for non-members: $95 per person, inc GST

These webinar sessions are for practitioners only and are suitable for SADFV practitioners and professionals who regularly support victim-survivors of DFV who want a better understanding of how technology is misused in DFV situations.
